

Accounting and Finance

Master Degree – 120 ects

Study cycle's objectives:

The goal of the study cycle is to train highly qualified professionals and endow them with high technical competence so that they can answer the needs of information in organizations, both internally and externally, in the area of Accounting and Finance.

The objectives of the course are:

- To offer students a solid training so that they can achieve a better professional performance and progress in their career;
- To deepen students' knowledge and develop research methods in order to face problems connected with Accounting and Finance in a more rigorous and solid way;
- To bring to the students the methods and techniques that allow for a more effective intervention in the financial area and contribute to value creation in organizations;
- To present the most recent development trends in Accounting and Finance.

The study program also aims at contributing for the development of the inland region where it is located, by increasing management financial competences of the enterprises.

Year	semester	Curricular Unit	ects
1	Winter	Complements of Financial Accounting	6
1	Winter	Advanced Topics in Taxation	6
1	Winter	Corporate Finance	6
1	Winter	Investigation Methodologies	6
1	Winter	Statistical Methods for Analysis and Decision Support	6
1	Summer	Accounting and Management Control	6
1	Summer	Fiscal Management	6
1	Summer	International Finance	6
1	Summer	Financial Auditing	6
1	Summer	/ Financial Investments	6
2	Winter.	Seminars on Accounting & Finance	6
2	Winter	Current Trends in Accounting	6
2	Winter	Project / Internship	18
2	Summer	Project / Internship	30